Customer Reviews

This book is like the movie but shorter, they have all the good scenes from the movie with out the drama

Great book and great quality. My 3 year old daughter loves her Little Golden Books and this has been a great addition to her new library. We love the size of the books because they fit perfectly into her little backpack and they aren't so long that we don't want to read them before bed.

Bought these for my 2 year old daughter and can't wait to read these to her. I remember these books when I was little. Love these little books for a 2 year old as well as they are short and easy to read. Great price and great quality.

I would rate this a 5 except for two reasons - both I'm sure have nothing to do with the seller. Firstly, the story (as I'm finding with these Disney Golden Book adaptations) is awkwardly short. I know they've only got a few pages to get to the story and the kids' are in it for the pictures anyways, but jeesh. Secondly, I noticed this with most of the golden books I purchased - they all seem to be slightly over-cut on the right hand side of the book cover so the pages 'stick' out just a bit. This seems like a manufacturing issue, but disappointing none-the-less.

I thought this was going to be a super cute Nemo book. It sucks. The pages are uneven, the type is boring black and I feel like I overpaid. This book should be in the 99 cent bin, not the $3.99 I paid.

Bummer

Story of Nemo and Marlin does not flow well. Takes random bits and pieces from the movie (and not necessarily the best/funniest) without hitting the main highlights. Pictures are pretty cute and my toddler son likes it... I just wish the story matched the wonderful movie more closely.

Finding Nemo Big Golden Book is much better. The illustrations aren't very similar to the movie and the story isn't all that. It's okay but it doesn't captivate my toddler the way the Big version does.

Doesn't follow the movie perfectly, but I guess you can't really expect it too in such a short book. The illustrations aren't quite the same as the characters in the movie but my daughter likes it anyway.
