Customer Reviews

My son recieved this book for Christmas and it has quickly become his FAVORITE book. He is now 13 months old and this has become one of the books that we have to read every night before he goes to bed. The bus is like a big puzzle piece that fits into each page. As it goes, it picks up different kids who are dressed up in costumes. At the end, they all arrive in town for the carnival. My son LOVES to take the bus out and put it back in to each page (he needs a little help from me). I also love that it shows different kinds of parents and families, even though it doesn't talk about it at all. I just discovered that there's also a "Busy Truck" book, and I might just have to purchase that one, too!
