This is a great little book - about 1/2 the size of a sheet of paper. Fits perfectly in the car or my purse for an activity at the doctor's office or out to eat. Best for ages 6 and up, in my opinion, as some of the pics are a little too detailed for the younger kids. My 7 year old really likes this book and will do a few pics at a time. Great purchase at around a dollar!

The books arrived promptly and in good order. Remember that these are little books and not necessarily for little children. The books are paperback but they are only 4.25" wide and 5.75" high. They are nice for children who are older than 6 or 7 but, in my opinion, they are way too small for children that are any younger than that. These books were perfect for my needs as my 6 year old grandson is taking a long trip by train (with his parents of course) but he gets bored easily so these little books should keep his mind active and he loves to solve math problems and picture puzzles. I would recommend but remember that these are very small books.

These books are much smaller than I thought they would be. Around 4 x 6 inches I would guess. This actually worked out as I bought them for my granddaughter to use on an airplane so they did not take up much room. My granddaughter used them so I would recommend.

Although I read most of the reviews, I was still a little disappointed in the size of the book. Pics are black and white. I think the directions are a little difficult for a 4 year old to read. I've included a picture of one of the pages. Sorry that there is a shadow but the directions say to look for 5 flowers and 14 other objects in this picture. Really? 14 other objects? They aren't really hidden either. But for the price, I guess it's not too bad.

Terrific little book, pictures very well designed. Has picture legends of what to find and how many, so she can x off each one as she finds it. So tiny I was disappointed at first (5" square) but easy to slip into a bag or keep in the car. Hard for a 4 yo to bend the pages to keep them open, but she loves it.

These activity books are perfect for entertaining toddlers while traveling. Buy several. Shop around for prices. Store like Five Below and AC Moore also sells them and sometimes you can find them on clearance.

I swear I did read the reviews before buying, but somehow did not see how tiny this book is--the book is only a bit bigger than an index card! Too small I think to be effectively colored in by a child, as it's hard to hold the book open. The tiny size and lack of color made this a non-starter for my almost 4-year old. Maybe he'll be interested when he's older, though.

I love the little coloring books, especially the stained window ones, but this is a waste of money. Many of the images in the pictures are small or downright tiny. Not at all suitable for the youngest because they won't yet have sufficient eye/hand control. Also not suitable for gels, as they bleed through. If you want small books for travel/convenience I suggest the stained glass series, some of them are even good for the youngest aspiring artist.
