Customer Reviews

My three-year-old grandson was terrified of bees, so I ordered this book. He wanted me to read it over and over, and now he not only isn't terrified, but he loves to tells everyone all about how important bees are.

In preschool they are learning about bees and butterfly's, this book was prefect to go along with what he's learning. And share with his class.

My daughter absolutely loved this book. Tons of information that she can use to help save the bees. It was great information for her to present in school. Very informational.
