Another book about the very things my toddler grandson loves...big trucks...big tractors...big combines...big diggers...etc. He is always around big equipment because his dad is a truck driver/big equipment operator/mechanic. He's even been with his dad on runs in a semi truck he used to drive for another company. His dad's new job won't let him be in the truck which makes the little man very, very, sad. But, he loves looking at his series of books and reads them every night before he goes to bed.

My nephew loved the book.
