I've used a calendar like this one for so many years now, I don't know what I would do without it. It stays by my phone in the kitchen and holds all my appointments, trip dates, birthdays, names of guests, etc. Being a quilter, seeing the lovely quilts, one each week, serves as great inspiration.

Each year I look forward to seeing the new quilts that Klaudeen chooses for her calendar. She travels throughout the US and chooses different quilts that she wouldn't mind featuring in her calendar so each year the calendar has a different view.

I buy multiple copies of this beautiful engagement calendar every year. It never disappoints, from the unbelievable quilt designs to the useful format of each page. Enough room to record all those important appointments while giving additional room in the back for notes and events to come for the next year. I would buy more if the price were a bit less. Love it!

2013 Quilt Art Engagement Calendar This calendar is a must for me to keep track of all the birthdays, anniversaries, medical appointments, meetings, and the many visitors that come to my home for various occasions. There is also enough space to write any short notes that I wish to remember from those engagements. I cannot be without this book every year ! I also give several of these books to family and friends who have told me how valuable they are to organizing their lives.

I have used this calendar since 1984 and still have them all. It is really fun to look back at them all and see where quilting has gone. The quilts are amazing and the calendar has plenty of space to write your appointments/reminders on.

Have been using this series of calendars as a journal for over 20 years. Like that I don't have to fill a lot of space. the last few years only one of the editors is still working and I really don't care for her choices as much as I had when the other lady was also editing. I find more "painterly" quilts now. Not my favorites.

The Calendar has 52 pictures of award winning quilts besides having a great space to keep track of weekly events. I even keep the old calendars to look at again to spark my quilting creativity.

I have gotten this calendar for years. I use it to update progress on whatever quilt project I'm working on. Useful for putting dates on a quilt label as projects get pushed aside for awhile.
