Customer Reviews

This book is hilarious. Mr. and Mrs. Green want to go camping. Mrs. Green is worry free but Mr. Green has some issues about the whole adventure. After packing their bags, they head out and describe all they see. Through reading this book, the children will not only enjoy their new reading independence, but they will get a kick out of the ending. Easy to read and follow. Filled with fun illustrations. A fun book for the beginner reader.

The alligator couple, Mr and Mrs Green are back they are ready for new adventures. This time they are heading out on a camping trip! My family enjoyed the bright illustrations. We have read several books in the series and were excited to see what The Greens were going to be up to in this installment. The book is great for readers who are just starting to learn to read. The characters are adorable and the story line is engaging.

He adore the book his name is also Keith Baker.
