I bought this book to keep my eight year old daughter busy on a plane trip. It fascinated all of us. These are mazes that you just trace with you finger and therefore they can be done over and over again and by many different people. Her favorite was the penguins going down water slides. This maze even had a half page in the center that enabled you to go back and forth between two scenes. This was excellent for stimulating the mind as well as just being fun!

I purchased this maze book for my 70 year old father because it is excellent for stimulating the mind as well as fun. The pages are printed on thick, glossy paper with colorful pages throughout the book. The maze book even has a half page in the center that enabled you to go back and forth between two scenes (Super-Sneaky!) The book would be re-useable if you used tracing paper over the pages or just traced with your finger. A maze book for all ages!

I love it! You trace the mazes with your finger, so you can reuse the book when you're done. Two children can share it without squabbling. The pages are sturdy and laminated, so I'm even going to buy a copy for my nieces' school for their aftercare program. I just know it'll get a lot of use.

I thought this was well created and offered interesting choices. Unfortunately it did not seem to appeal to my 7 yo grandson -- who (sadly) seems addicted to electronic devices.

My just-turned-6 year old daughter loves this book. She hasn't put it down since she's gotten it!
