Super Hero High is home to the world's best young, future Super Heroes (and even some Super Villains!) and its newest student is none other than young Wonder Woman! Wonder Woman can easily save the day, but surviving high school proves to be her hardest challenge yet. Mean girls, cute boys, fashion disasters, and people to save...Wonder Woman learns to face them all! Wonder Woman At Super Hero High is the first book in the new DC Super Hero Girls series by Lisa Yee, which focuses on all our favorite female super heroes and villains, from the DC universe, in their teenage years. Fast paced, full of humor, action, and girl power, Wonder Woman At Super Hero High is pure fun from beginning to end! Lisa Yee creates an engaging and entertaining world that will excite and intrigue young readers. With age-appropriate action, Wonder Woman At Super Hero High provides readers with super-sized thrills minus the violence, gore, and adult humor found in many of the comics and comic inspired media made for older audiences. Super Hero High is bursting with wicked powers, cool gadgets, neat classes, and wacky teachers. Young readers will be delighted by all this wondrous world has to offer! We meet many young male Super Heroes and Super Villains (Beast Boy, Green Lantern, Cyborg, Captain Cold, and more), but the heart of this book (and series) are all the fantastic female characters! Female supers are often overlooked or one-dimensional in modern representations of comics aimed at adults, but Wonder Woman At Super Hero High celebrates these complex, strong, capable girls. Yee does a great job of bringing new energy and life to characters like Wonder Woman, Harley Quinn, Poison Ivy, Hawkgirl, Katana, and more.
