Customer Reviews

I've been getting this New York Times puzzle/day planner for over 10 years now. I wouldn't have any other. It is substantially well-made (the covers used to be hard, but the new more flexible covers are nice) nice format, love the wire binding and of course, the puzzles. Just enough difficulty to make them challenging and workable when you have a minute or two to 'kill'.

THE NEW YORK TIMES SUNDAY CROSSWORD PUZZLES 2016 WEEKLY PLANNER

CALENDAR is a great item for anyone who needs a weekly calendar and who enjoys doing Sunday crossword puzzles. Each day of the week (beginning with Mondays to Sundays) has several lines for a person to jot down whatever is on the agenda. On the opposing page is a selection of a previous New York Times Sunday Crossword Puzzle. It's actually an ingenious idea for a person who likes doing crossword puzzles because they can work on one while their calendar is already out.

I am enjoying this calendar and puzzles very much. My only complaint is, the print is a tad small for my old eyes. I do like the space for notes on each day. Also, the book is designed so that it is easy to open and write in.

I bought this as a stocking stuffer for my wife. Unfortunately, she is such an avid crossword puzzler that she doesn't do one of these a week, and will likely finish the calendar by March.

Always a challenge. Does anyone have a "do not cheat pill"? I probably finish 80 to 95 percent without cheating.

Clever themes, fun, always excellent clues (challenging but not too obscure; accurate).
