This series has really been enjoyable for my 9 year old granddaughter who is an animal lover. For me, the grandmother, it was refreshing to have something sensible and interesting. A book we both agree is worth our time to read together.

My daughter (7) loved this book. It is told from the perspective of the dog who is a service animal. It starts from the time he is born and goes from there. The book is a good length so my daughter felt accomplished when she finished it. She didn't think of it as a baby book like the ones her brother (4) reads. There was nothing offensive in the book and no rude language. Perfect for her she didn't struggle with any of the words. Again A great read for her.

My granddaughter first read the Horse Diaries and loved how the stories were written from the horse's point of view. When she saw the Dog Diaries she put them on her Christmas wishlist with me. She can't wait for more.

Granddaughter loved the book - she reads all the time - loves animal books -- she was happy they were on accelerated reader

I liked the book because I have always liked dogs so I read the book. It's cool to be able to see from a dog's point of view. I would recommend this book for people that like dogs and have wanted to see from a dog's point of view.

I bought this for my seven-year-old granddaughter whose Brownie troop is considering sponsoring a seeing-eye dog. Her Dad read the book to her in one morning. My granddaughter loved the book, which totally held her interest, and she is really looking forward to sponsoring a dog

Review by 7 year old daughter. I loved this book. It was really interesting and I couldn't wait to find out what happened next. It was very realistic. I loved #1 but this one was even better!

Another Great book! Wow! These dogs are incredible! I love dogs so much! Your books are awesome! I am addicted to these books.
