Customer Reviews

I am teaching my daughter Russian and was looking for good Russian books for a toddler. This serves the purpose of having Russian words written under the pictures, but the book is nothing special. The pictures are so basic, that I could probably put this book together myself by printing the pictures off of the internet. There is no story, and nothing exciting. I would highly recommend the First 1000 Words in Russian instead.

This is a great little book for early word recognition. It has both languages below each picture. It is a sturdy board book so it should be durable in the hands of a toddler. The ad was hard to understand and I actually received 2 duplicate books.

I bought this book for my russian baby so she can associate both languages with pictures. This book has lots of different things to look at- animals, body parts, food, etc. Pictures are very likable and interesting to look at.

My only comment is I wish it had the pronunciation of the Russian words also. I work in a preschool with and have a Russian child in my classroom, and would like to know some words in order to communicate with him better.
