I saw this book at the Huntington Library (California) but they only had one and I have two little granddaughters. So I purchased one there and ordered the other off . It is an adorable book with cute pictures and a catchy rhyme. Short enough for young toddlers and even has a little handle for them to carry around.

Bought for 18 month old granddaughter for Christmas this year to go along with a FP tea set also bought on . I think she will enjoy it. It's a darling heavy board book that should stand up to a toddler's page turning!

My 3 year old LOVES this book! She carries it by the handle and pretends to pour it. She also loves the adorable story and illustrations that go along with it!! I recommend it.

My sister in law is a big tea drinker so I knew I had to put this with her baby shower gift. The book is shaped like a tea cup (adorable!) and the pictures are so sweet. What a great book for any tea or bunny loving little girl.

This was a gift for a 4-year-old grandniece and she (and her female cousins of close age) all enjoyed it. Really like the handle which makes it easy for her little hands to grasp/carry it. Arrived on time and in excellent condition.

One of my daughters favorite books!! Such an adorable little rhyme. We read it almost everytime we have a "tea party". It is incredibly durable. We've had it for well over a year & it is in perfect shape. This would be the perfect Easter gift! Any little girl would be thrilled to receive it!

We gave copies of these books in conjunction with a stuffed bunny to our young nieces at Christmas. The shape of the book is adorable for play acting a tea party. The illustrations and story are very sweet.

This is the most adorable little book. I love that it is in the shape of a teacup. The pages are thick cardboard. The illustrations are precious and the rhyming is super cute. If I had one minor criticism, it's that the bunnies "plop" down to tea and "slurp" their tea. A lady should never plop or slurp.
