Love these books. My son, who is 9 has been reading them for a little over a year now and this book is wonderful. I must say that this is one of his favorites. He is a history junky, lol. He so far seems also seems to love the Jackie Robinson, Teddy Roosevelt, Abraham Lincoln, Robert E Lee, What is the world series the best as a 8 and 9 year old. I also read these to him in the evenings and I really enjoy them as a 40 year old father. I have learned so much from them as well. Sometimes I read them before or after my son in order to have an educated discussion with him about the subject of the book. I really also get alot out of them as well.

This is my son's first book from the Who Was...series, and he really enjoyed it. I had told him a bit about Roberto Clemente a few years ago but this gave him more details. I read some of it myself and can see it is well-written and informative. The Abraham Lincoln and Albert Einstein books are next!
