Customer Reviews

This is right on for a good second grade reader. They are able to read it on their own and upgrade vocabulary as they go along. This kept my daughter's attention and now she is into the complete series. I will take a book over more video any day.

This is a fun book to read and another favorite of my five year old daughter. The font is nice for young readers as it's easy to read. The illustrations are colorful, fun and engaging. The story line is very cute and encourages imagination in a young reader.

My girls like Rainbow Magic books, however, most of the chapter books are at a mid third grade or higher. These readers are at a second grade level which is perfect for my girls.

Rainbow Magic: The Rainbow Fairies (Scholastic Reader Level 2) When my older daughter was 6 she discovered the Rainbow Magic series and fell in love with the Rainbow Fairies. When I saw this easy reader version of Rainbow Fairies I immediately bought it for my 4 year old. Reading this book to my 4 year old, I was pleased with the simple storyline that she could follow and enjoy. It was lighthearted and fun while showcasing different colors and foods. She loves to sit and have it read to her with the simple words and bright colorful pictures. I've even caught my older daughter reading it. This easy reader version expands the darling series of Rainbow Fairies for little girls. It is a great introduction that should lead them into a whole world of adorable chapter books in a few years.

My 5 year old daughter and I really love this book. The illustrations are colorful and the story line is fun to read. The font is nice for young readers. It's great to see a team work together to reach a goal.

Both my daughters love rainbow magic books. These are great when they are not yet ready for the chapter books. It is nice to have all the rainbow magic chapter books to move to next. They even make friends by playing rainbow magic fairies with other girls and telling each other about the books they have read.

Rainbow Magic: Rainbow Fairies: The Rainbow Fairies is a very cute book for early readers. My youngest granddaughter, who is 6, loves these books and I know she will always enjoy reading them. They make great special occasion gifts and stocking stuffers.

The Rainbow Magic books are great. Our 5 year old Grand Daughter just loves these books. She enjoys reading to her sister who is 2 1/2 and is showing an interest in reading as well. You can't go wrong with these books. I think we have all of them. Hope they come out with more.
